AFL, CIO Challenge Press

ALL three labor organizations, AFL, CIO and Railroad Brotherhoods, took the occasion of the Press Lords Parliament to challenge the present campaign of the newspapers against labor, probably the greatest exhibition of journalistic falsehood since the fight over the 8-hour-day movement.

R J Thomas, president United Automobile, Aircraft & Agricultural Implement Workers, CIO, sent an open letter to the assembled publishers calling attention to one episode, the story started by Pearson & Allen on the radio March 22 and carried by Associated Press about a Miss Samp being fired for urging more production (AP story, same episode, exposed as falsehood, IN FACT Apr 13, p4). Because the same newspapers which frontpaged the lie refused to make retraction, Thomas placed his protest as a page ad in Editor & Publisher.

"Recently a bitter campaign of malicious propaganda to poison the public's mind against organized labor has been carried on by the subsidized press which is composed of reactionary daily newspapers controlled, through ownership and advertising, by exploiting profiteers and union-haters. Together with the bourbon politicians, idle rich and anti-labor columnists, they are the real parasites of our country. . . . By peddling falsehoods about labor, the subsidized press is creating factionalism, disunity and class hatred. If Hitler were not so busy running away from a victorious Russian army he would take time to pin medals on the editors and columnists who are misleading the public.

"The reactionary editors of the newspapers are doing just what Hitler predicted he could accomplish here through his agents."

The exposes of the campaign of falsehoods in the commercial press from Railroad Brotherhood's organ "Labor" have appeared in IN FACT.

Pegler Exposed as Liar

TIMED with publishers' convention was Columnist Westbrook Pegler's syndicated villification of the labor press. Pegler wrote (Apr 22) "The so-called Labor Press of the country, consisting of many small and generally scurrilous publications, most of them conducted for the financial and political profit of the union bosses . . ." etc.

Later on, Pegler wrote: "I have always been very careful to stay within the bounds of provable fact . . . I weighed my facts well . . . I have always held that responsibility accompanies the privilege of a free press and just naturally

America First and Coughlin Endorse U S Nazi . . . p. 1

Ship-Repair Yard Workers Laid Off—Not "Loading" . . . p. 4

ALTHOUGH America First and Coughlin are supposed to have agreed upon a separation, if not a divorce, last July, IN FACT has received the following evidence of continued relationship. Moreover, the evidence convicts one main chapter of America First of endorsing one of the leading pro-Nazi hoodlums still free in a country at war.

In the mid-April issues of Social Justice—the first issues barred from the mails pending U S Government's charge of sedition—there was inserted a leaflet advertising a speaking course by Joseph E McWilliams, the New York pro-Nazi hoodlum. Shortly before Social Justice inserted these leaflets for McWilliams in its Chicago copies, Chicago's Lincoln Park Chapter of America First sent a letter to its members of which the important paragraphs follow:

"Dear Friend: We who have worked in America First have a great responsibility. . . . We have a deep underlying philosophy that perhaps can best be expressed in that phrase of Col Lindbergh's, 'an independent American destiny' . . . Deep down in our hearts each of us was hoping to see developed in America a new kind of leadership. . . .

"We know that we cannot forever be preoccupied with Europe's and Asia's economic wars. . . . It is clear that we who were in America First had a broader purpose. The fight against participation in the oncoming war was but an incident in the fight for an 'independent American destiny'.

"Our really great fight is to determine who will be the masters when peace comes. What will be the nature of the coming peace? Will the international-minded, the international gold shysters, the international manipulators, rule America in the coming peace, or will America be ruled by Americans in the interest of the American people and of their welfare? . . .

"If we, the true American patriots, do not come forward with a program, if we do not organize promptly and effectively to assure ourselves the peace we want, then the internationalists will win the peace by default. . . . We ask you to help create an American Victory Movement. . . .

"We invite you to hear Joseph E McWilliams of the Midwest Monetary Federation discuss the formation of an 'American Victory Movement'. . . .

"Mr McWilliams was born in Oklahoma on the Cheyenne-Arapahoe Indian reservation. . . . At 37 Mr McWilliams is a veteran in the war now being waged in America to determine whether America is to have an 'independent destiny' or forever be the cat's paw of various international-minded groups and races. Mr McWilliams is one of the greatest orators in this country. You will hear one of the most inspiring addresses you have ever heard. You will be thrilled by this call to action!

"Board of Directors, Lincoln Park Chapter, America First."

McWilliams Is 100 Percent American Nazi

Omitted from the America First endorsement of Joe McWilliams is one fact: that McWilliams is an American Nazi. "Adolf Hitler," McWilliams said in one of his meetings in Yorkville, the ex-Nazi section of NYC, "is the greatest leader in the history of the world."

In Sept 1940 McWilliams organized the Knights of the Dagger as part of his American Destiny Party—readers will note that America First chapter has taken over the "destiny" idea from this notorious Fascist and street-brawler. Each Knight of the Dagger received a miniature stainless steel dagger, similar to the Nazi daggers on which the words "Blood and Honor" are engraved. The Knights' password is "Sooner or Later" and each Knight must know how to handle a gun.

In July 1941 it was reported that following a quarrel between John Flynn and Father Curran, the Brooklyn Christian Front leader, America First and Coughlin had split. Immediately afterwards Social Justice published letters from General Wood and Lulu Wheeler, wife of Senator Wheeler denying that.

Another America First tie-up with native Fascists who are facing or may soon face charges of sedition, is evident from the following facts:

1. "Rev" Gerald L K Smith endorses America First.

2. Smith will campaign for the senate on pro-Coughlin issue.

3. Senator Nye, one of America First's orators, endorses Fascist publication founded this April by Smith.

On April 16 GLK Smith sent a notice to the press from something called "Committee of 1,000,000" saying he would be a candidate for the Senate and make his support of his fellow Fascist rabble-rouser, Charles E Coughlin, the main issue. (Incidentally, in his "The Cross and the Flag" Smith claims "over 50,000 members of the CIO in Detroit alone are affiliated with our Committee." This is something for the anti-Fascist CIO to look into.)

In the same magazine Smith has a piece entitled "America First—in War, in Peace" in which he states: "I was not a member of the America First Committee, but I admired many of the things it accomplished. . . . I was sorry that this great mobilization of Americans was disbanded. . . ."

In the same issue of this Fascist publication appears Smith's statement:

"This journal and its editor appreciate the fact that we have many real statesmen in Congress. These statesmen are found in both the major parties as well as in the Progressive Party. We shall quote frequently from such members of Congress as dare to speak the unvarnished truth from day to day. The following are just a few whose words will appear in this journal:

"US Senators Reynolds, Nye, Walsh, Taft, Vandenberg, Brooks, Wheeler and others.

"Members of the Lower House of Congress, Woodruff, Rankin, Taber, Rich, Hoffman, Shafer, Short, Jones, and many others.

"It is to be regretted that men such as the ones listed here are not in the majority. . . ."

(Editorial Note: The majority of those listed have been denounced in the CIO, AFL and Railroad Brotherhoods press and in every honest publication in America as anti-labor, native-Fascist, anti-Semitic, agent of the National Association of Manufacturers, lobbyist for the special interests, pro-Mussolini or pro-Hitler, or a combination of one or more of these.)

Some Questions for Senator Nye

It is legal for any publication, Fascist or anti-Fascist, to reprint statements made by members of Congress. This, however, does not excuse Senator Nye who, in reply to a letter from GLK Smith, sent this Fascist publication one of his statements to reprint in its first issue. (What will Senator Nye have to say if Att'y Gen'l Biddle follows his prosecution of Social Justice with a similar charge against "The Cross and the Flag"? Does Senator Nye know that GLK Smith was a member of Pelley's Silver Shirts? Here is the letter, dated August 5 1938, from H E Martin, executive director of the Silver Shirts of America, which was made public by Dr L M Birkhead, director of the Friends of Democracy:

"Answering your letter of the 3rd regarding Mr Gerald L K Smith's connection with the Silver Shirts, which you say he denies, we have on file certain letters and telegrams received from him. . . . The letters are all written on Silver Shirt of America letterheads and signed by him. His registration number as a member of the Silver Shirts was 3223 and his wife's number was 3220."

In the trial of William Dudley Pelley, native Fascist now in jail, a letter was read from GLK Smith saying: "By the time you receive this letter I shall be on the road to St Louis and parts north with a uniformed squad of young men composing what I believe will be the first Silver Shirt stormtroops in America."

Smith broadcasts from station WJR, Detroit. Sometimes WOL, Washington, rebroadcasts him.

PUBLISHERS MEET, IGNORE TREASON, TALK PROFITS

ALTHOUGH they had been accused of harboring a minority (but a minority including several of the largest and most powerful newspapers in America) which was engaged in treason, or very close to it, the Lords of the Press (American Newspaper Publishers Ass'n) convened in New York and

1. Devoted the major part of their time to discussing profits.

2. Devoted a large part of their time to fixing up the Associated Press (world's largest news agency) so it cannot be sued as a monopoly.

3. Devoted considerable time to discussing newsprint supply; and never mentioning the fact the use of Canadian mills for pulp making curtails the number of airplanes for General MacArthur.

4. Held secret sessions to which newspaper reporters were forbidden entry. The ANPA has a strikebreaking anti-union department known as the Standing Committee. It may or may not still have its Open Shop Committee; this is one of their lordship's secrets.

5. Listened to speakers, pledged aid to war effort, and argued on whether or not to ask money of Uncle Sam for war bond ads.

Previous to the ANPA convention, its mouthorgan, Editor & Publisher (Apr 18) ran an advance story which was the keynote; heading: "ANPA CONVENTION TO EXAMINE PROBLEMS CREATED BY THE WAR." First paragraphs: "Rising costs of operation, decreased revenue . . . shortage of supplies, and censorship . . . will be studied by delegates . . . The most important ANPA convention to be held assumed that anyone who bore false witness against a union must be liable to punishment. . . . Unions and their publications are incomparably more guilty of vicious slanders and libel than their critics. . . ."

The facts are: The American Newspaper Guild, to which Pegler once belonged, recently published side by side two exhibits: the first, a recent Pegler column on the Memorial Day Massacre in Chicago, the second the LaFollette Report. The CIO News and other labor papers also published this evidence (It appears in "The Facts Are".) The heading for these two exhibits was "Pegler is a liar." Throughout the labor press there have been editorials denouncing Pegler, but all news stories which have called him a liar have supported the allegations by documentary evidence. IN FACT challenges Pegler to name among the leading commercial newspapers on whose money he grows rich any one paper which is as fair, honest and journalistically ethical as the leading labor papers such as CIO News, Labor, American Federationist, etc.

No labor paper has ever denied that a few Scalises and Bioffs exist. Their proportion to labor leaders may be the same as the proportion of Coughlins in churches, hoodlums among columnists, and racketeers among editors, but much smaller than the proportion of traitors among the big publishers.

Challenge to Pegler

ALTHOUGH it got only 4 paragraphs, page 32 in the Times Apr 13, and no mention in most standard commercial and venal newspapers, the convention of the CIO editors was significant, and by contrast with the ANPA convention, a lesson to America in patriotism. It was also a challenge to labor's main villifier, Pegler.

Sixty CIO editors, representing that many papers, all devoted to America's general welfare and none pledged to advertising money, met in Washington Apr 18. They did not spend their time discussing advertising but devoted themselves to just one objective: "to promote military production for an immediate military offensive against Hitler."

President Murray opened the meeting, urging a strong counterattack against the Axis forces. He later attacked the American pro-Axis forces which were hampering America's war efforts, such as the backers of the Smith bill, including the commercial press.

Every hour of the convention was spent in discussing winning the war. Nothing else mattered. And one of the ways was how to counteract the iniquities of the commercial press. It was agreed that "labor must build a press of its own and continue to nail lies [in the commercial press] with facts." Delegates were unanimous in voting a labor offensive for the victory program "despite the anti-labor lies and slanders [in the commercial press] designed to break unions and cripple war production."

Honest Newspapers

IN its two years of existence IN FACT has exposed suppression, distortion and mishandling of news by the big city papers—the two hundred which make public opinion in America—naming only three or four exceptions for its roll of honor. However, there are scores of smaller city papers which are not venal and corrupt.

Add to roll of honor the Springfield

Republican which ever since Bowles established it in 1824 has been an example of the free press. The other day Smith & Wesson, making revolvers for USA, held a parade with banners advertising their guns. When the unions which make the guns (United Electric Radio & Machine Workers) appeared with a single (authorized) banner, Harold and Frank Wesson ordered the banner out, or the men must stay out of parade. Springfield Republican frontpaged story of this unpatriotic act, Springfield Union ran it page 4, fairly quoting unions against the manufacturers' anti-American attitude.

Censored

LISTENING to "This Is War" programs, we are convinced the Donald Ogden Stewart "This Is Morale" script, which was suppressed, is still one of the best, and should be given now.

Week ago National Broadcasting suppressed and got Columbia to suppress from "This Is War" script on propaganda several lines referring to newspaper buncombe which aids Axis, such as editorials predicting there will be no Fall elections. Reference to "Washington-Chicago-NY newspaper Axis" was killed. Script did not mention Wash Herald-Times (Patterson), Chi Trib (McCormick) and NYD News (Patterson) by name.

When Friends of Democracy tried to place a page ad in NYTimes and NY Herald Tribune challenging this same newspaper-Axis, papers refused, but San Francisco Chronicle did accept.

When Frederic A Coudert, attorney for Petain-Laval Fascist France, issued his latest rebaiting blast against NYC school teachers, NYTimes gave it front page, much space. Teachers' reply charging Coudert outfit is "Fascist-dominated" and Hitler agency, was given little space, buried (page 34, Apr 26). The Rapp-Coudert Committee investigating subversive activities officially declared it found no evidence of Fascism, Nazism. It refused to investigate charges of Fascism by four reputable organizations, two of them Jewish. It accepted testimony from contributor to Brooklyn Tablet, which with Coughlin ran the Christian Front, a Fascist anti-Semitic organization. School teachers allege the Rapp-Coudert committee is itself Fascist, anti-Semitic, and subversive. But it has support of Jewish-owned NYTimes.

When Mutual Broadcasting Co arranged nationwide broadcast of CIO Comm for American and Allied War Relief, Chi Tribune's station WGN cut out Wisconsin State Industrial Union Council program (Apr 14).

in the past 2 decades. . . . Among the outstanding questions of 60 scheduled for Tuesday discussion are the following:

"What is going to happen to both local and national advertising during the war? What can a newspaper do to promote new sources of advertising in a period of war emergency?"

"What are newspapers under 50,000 circulation doing to offset lineage losses. . . .?"

"What is the general attitude of publishers toward advertising by the gov't?"

Treason? Freedom of the Press? Ethics? Corruption? The anti-labor bias of 75% or more of the press? Aid given to the Axis by the Chicago Tribune and New York Daily News and other reactionary papers? There was no mention of anything but business in any of the points E&P listed except one: "Should headlines over war news 'slant' optimistically or pessimistically?"

During the convention the press devoted more columns to its discussion of whether or not to ask the government for war advertising money than to the war itself. The special convention number of Editor & Publisher carried eight big stories, of which six dealt with money and profits, one with the AP monopoly which makes it almost impossible for new papers to break into the present combine, and only one dealt with patriotism. Where was MacLeish's sensational charge that there is treason among America's leading newspaper publishers? E & P did not suppress that story, the biggest story of the convention, one of the biggest stories since the Global War began. But it buried it on page 94, col 3.

Publishers Talk Ad Money, Disregard Treason Charge

The ANPA convention followed the American Society of Newspaper Editors Convention and was held simultaneously with the Associated Press convention and other editor-publisher meetings. Director of Office of Facts and Figures Archibald MacLeish spoke to the ANPA as he had to the ASNE, before whom he had made the charge that there is treason among a minority of American publishers. MacLeish did not name the publisher who, he had heard, told his staff he intended to come "as close to treason as I dare" nor did he name the "defeatists and diversionists who strike from that ambiguous and doubtful shadow where freedom of expression darkens into treason" (See IN FACT Apr 27, p 1). Inasmuch as MacLeish spoke in the same breath of publishers who had betrayed a military document to Japan, IN FACT named as the possible publishers MacLeish was accusing of treason, Col McCormick of Chicago Tribune, Captain Patterson of NYD News and Eleanor Patterson of Washington Times-Herald who had published U S War Dep't mobilization plan which, as IN FACT exclusively reported, became one of the pretexts for Hitler's declaration of war on America.

Most newspapers had suppressed the treason charge. Credit must be given NYHerald-Tribune for publishing it, and to NY's PM which is the only daily in America (so far as we know) which went ahead with the charge. While the big dailies of NYC, where the convention was being held, devoted most of their space (outside MacLeish and Lord Beaverbrook addresses) to advertising and similar subjects, PM tried to find out what America's leading newspaper owners intended doing about MacLeish's demand that they police their ranks and expose the traitors who are helping Hitler in a time when the future of America faces its worst threat since 1775.

William Allen White, Emporia Gazette, told PM reporter William Wiener that "MacLeish made a good speech. But I wish he had named names—Coughlin, McCormick, Patterson, Pelley, et al, ad lib." Houston Harte, San Angelo (Tex) Standard Time said "Sure there are papers that are doing that (undermining public confidence) . . . What MacLeish said is true." Palmer Hoyt, Portland Oregonian, said "What MacLeish said is true." A W Norton, Christian Science Monitor, was in favor of convincing certain papers of their wrongdoings. Senator Capper, Topeka Capital, and one of the earliest subscribers and endorsers of IN FACT, said "I endorse what MacLeish said. We can well take notice of his suggestions"; Herbert Bayard Swope, once editor of America's leading liberal paper, the defunct NYWorld, said "MacLeish is right." John S Knight, Detroit Free Press, said "I don't think it unethical for one paper to attack another."

However, the persons who favored driving America's traitors out of America's journalism are with two exceptions small town editors, whereas the owners of the powerful city press refused to agree, or sneered, or threatened. Here is PM's poll:

Col McCormick (Chi Trib): "MacLeish is a Communist. Russia goes on the other side—MacLeish goes on the other side."

William Randolph Hearst Jr (NYJournal-American): "I didn't read MacLeish's speech fully enough to comment on it."

Roy Howard (Scripps-Howard chain): "I know of many daily newspaper publishers with whose editorial attitude toward the war I heartily disagree. I know of none whose loyalty I question."

Eleanor Patterson (Washington Times-Herald): "PM will get nothing from me. I'm going to sue you. You don't print the truth."

Frank E Gannett (Gannett chain; sponsor of the native Fascist strikebreaking organization called Committee to Uphold the Constitution): "I consider it most unfair for anyone to say that even a minority of our press are trying to undermine our Government."

J H Torbett (Gannett papers): "It was the type of speech to be expected from the director of OFF."

L W Gracey (Geneva, NY, Daily Times): "Don't know the facts. I must have been lighting a cigarette while he was talking."

The American publishers devoted most of their time to discussing the advertising situation; they took no action against indicated traitors within the ANPA who are aiding Hitler.

There is reason to believe that the press owned by traitors, defeatists and diversionists, has a larger circulation than the press which is wholeheartedly for America winning this war and ending Fascism. IN FACT will continue to name names in future issues.

SHIP REPAIR WORKERS LAID OFF—NOT "LOAFING"

IN FACT is constantly receiving reports from war plant workers citing inefficiency and waste of time and effort due to a business-as-usual policy. We have not publicized these, believing there was a chance of doing more harm than good by stressing isolated cases. The instance we are bringing before our readers now, however, has to do with the very heart of the country's war effort—shipping. It not only reveals a puzzling slip-up somewhere in the admittedly crucial shipping situation, but illustrates how through lack of an adequate daily press labor's position is misrepresented.

On April 22 Rear Admiral Emory S Land, chairman of the United States Maritime Commission, told the Senate committee investigating the war effort that there was serious "loafing" in the shipyards. He spoke vaguely of "infernal agitation" over unions. Strikes are not serious now, he said, and he traced the lag in production to a steel shortage.

Two days later President Roosevelt also emphasized steel shortage as responsible for shipping lag. But the damage had been done by Land's testimony, or rather the papers' treatment of it. The story went out with heavy emphasis on labor's "loafing" and "agitation." Sample headline from the NY Herald Tribune: "Land Charges Labor Agitation at Shipyards." April 26 in Wake Up America program Land's charge was broadcast to nation in support of vicious Smith anti-labor bill.

The same day the first stories on Land's "loafing" statement appeared in the morning papers, IN FACT received from Edward L Malick, president of Local 25, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, CIO, a mass of material on the situation in the East Boston (Mass) shipyards of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation which give a quite different picture than the press made out of Admiral Land's statement. "For the past four weeks," Malick writes, "men have been laid off daily at the East Boston ship-repair yards, and today there are approximately 1,500 men out of 2,700 not working. We have tried through every agency to bring work here, to present new ideas to expedite production, and also to find out why, in times of war, such lay-offs are possible."

Malick produced a chronological record of communications to and from government agencies, from March 24 to April 23. By letter, telegram and telephone the union sought to interest Donald M Nelson, head of WPB; Admiral Land, Maritime Commission chairman, Governor Saltonstall of Massachusetts; Mayor Tobin of Boston, the 15 Congressmen and two Senators from Massachusetts, in the ship-repair yard situation. A suggestion that newly launched ships be taken to the ship-repair yard for finishing—work the yards are equipped to do—was described as "very good" by one agency and turned down by another; investigation was promised, action was promised. Meanwhile the lay-offs continued, until, out of 2,688 employed five weeks before, there were only 1,242 working on April 22. (By April 27, 300 more had been laid off.)

April 22, remember, was the day Admiral Land told the Senate Committee that there was loafing and "infernal agitation" in the ship yards.

"THE FACTS ARE . . ." is on the press now; a big book, with 20 pages of illustrations and documentary material. Typography by Robert Josephy. A copy goes to every contestant and everybody's a contestant who sends in 5 subscriptions or renewals at $1. To qualify, the envelope must bear postmark not later than which has resulted in many cancellations and, more important, some advertising withdrawals. However, new editors are responsible for publishing Donald Richberg's anti-labor article entitled "Will Labor Lose the War?" Both articles follow SEP Fascist pattern, which began in 1920's with articles praising Mussolini and reached peak with employment of a murderer. (Maderos, alias King, now serving 10 years for murder) to collaborate with pro-Fascist writer William McFee in smearing Maritime Union. Labor unions throughout US are denouncing Richberg as ex-labor lawyer who went over to corporations for the big money.

Fooling the Farmer

TAKING advantage of the controversy caused by John L Lewis' attempt to unionize dairy farmers, a new organization calling itself Free Farmers Inc, has been hailed by the (anti-labor) press as liberal, democratic organization. This is another instance where city press fools the farmers. According to Farmers Defender (Apr issue) Free Farmers was set up by anti-labor, anti-administration forces "sniping away for months at war production effort. Behind them are tremendous resources. . . . Free Farmers looks like a NY version of California Associated Farmers, exposed by LaFollette Committee as native-Fascist organization of corporations masquerading as farmers. Similarly Free Farmers is anti-dirt farmers and according to Farmers Defender "has all the elements of a vigilante group and the seeds of Fascism are in it."

Protest Injustice

BOSS HAGUE of Jersey City, America's first Fascist mayor, five years ago imprisoned three seamen, Anthony Panchelly, Ed M Woodworth and Donald Brown on a fake charge of stealing $21. They got 15 years each. Seven thousand petitions have been sent Governor Edison of NJ by AFL unions and NJ Industrial Council CIO asking for release of these innocent men. Hague framed them during 1937 maritime strike.
